Prevention, Intervention and Suppression Measures

In order to discourage the influence of gangs, school staff shall take the following measures:

1. Any student displaying behavior, gestures, apparel or paraphernalia indicative of gang affiliation shall be referred to the principal or designee.
 - a. The student's parent/guardian shall be contacted and may be asked to meet with school staff.
 - b. The student may be sent home to change clothes if necessary.
 - c. Law enforcement shall be notified if the student is suspected of being involved in gangs.
 - d. Students who seek help in rejecting gang associations, may be referred to community-based gang suppression and prevention organizations.
2. Any gang graffiti on school premises shall be removed, washed down or painted over as soon as discovered. Daily checks for graffiti shall be made throughout the campus. Graffiti shall be photographed before it is removed. These photographs shall be shared with local law enforcement authorities and used in future disciplinary or criminal action against the offenders. This information can also be used to determine whether a threat of incident is imminent.
3. When considered necessary, classroom and after-school programs at each school shall be designed to enhance individual self-esteem, provide positive reinforcement for acceptable behavior, and foster interest in a variety of constructive activities. These programs may also:
 - a. Explain the dangers of gang membership.
 - b. Provide counseling for targeted at-risk students.
 - c. Include lessons or role-playing workshops in gang avoidance skills and nonviolent conflict resolution, including communication skills, anger management, acceptance, mediation skills, and anti-bullying.
 - d. Assign individual gang members to cooperative learning groups in which they may work toward common goals with students who are not members of their gang.
 - e. Provide school-to-career instruction.
 - f. Provide positive interaction with local law enforcement staff.

Gang prevention lessons may be taught jointly by teachers and law enforcement staff.
4. Staff shall actively promote membership in authorized student organizations which can provide students companionship, safety, and a sense of purpose and belonging, including:
 - a. Positive sports and cultural activities and affiliations with the local community.
 - b. Structured, goal-oriented community service projects.

Parent/Guardian and Community Outreach

When considered necessary, gang prevention classes or counseling offered for parents/guardians may address the following topics:

1. The reasons students join gangs.
2. The dangers and consequences of gang membership.
3. Warning signs which may indicate that children are at risk of becoming involved with gangs, including the use of social media for gang communication and promotion.
4. The nature of local gang apparel and graffiti.
5. Effective parenting techniques and planning family time.
6. Conflict resolution techniques.

Community programs may address:

1. The scope and nature of local gang problems.
2. Strategies by which each segment of the community may alleviate gang problems.
